Traceability Matrix

Work done by...	Requirements / Features	Implement a view to show a chat between patient and doctor/administrator a text box and keyboard for typing messages.	Create a backend service to store user info, documents, and other information that can be shared.	Implement an interface to display information about the visit, schedule, and documents.	Implement a login screen to allow all users to login to the application	Implement a create profile screen with pertinent fields such as name, office, health needs, etc	Implement a view for the user to schedule an appointment with their healthcare provider with an accessible calendar view.	Implement a screen for the administration to upload documents, lab results, etc for patients in their portal connected to the application.	Implement calendar view for healthcare admin to set dates available for appointments.	Reuse admin view for uploading documents and tailor it to patients for uploading important documents.	Implement a home screen for patients to view new notifications, changes to appointments, and other relevant items
SS	The users are able to message each other provider, administrator, and patient through a chat medium within the app.	x	x
SS	The user on the administration side is able to upload documents, lab results, and other documents to the patient. The patient will be able to view the documents on their profile for easy access. The documents will be available for both users to view whenever (It's not temporary).		x					x
MB	The user is able to access a personal account with their unique medical details.			x
MB	The user is able to create a profile and match with their provider using their healthcare providers' name or with a unique code.					x

DD	The user is able to set up an appointment at a convenient time for them through a scheduling section of the application.						x
DD	The user on the administrative side will be able to make and log in to a personal profile as well as an office profile for where they work.				x
JR	The healthcare admin users will be able to display the dates and times that are available for their offices on their office profile.								x
JR	The user is able to upload their health records in order for their provider to view.									x
SS/JR	The user on the administrative side will be able to organize the appointments they have with their patients.						x
DD/MB	Patient users are able to view upcoming appointments, new notifications and other pertinent items on a single home screen									x